

Donna Vessey

The Creativity Engineer

Drawing from decades of experience in the creative arts, Donna Vessey delivers compelling presentations that reveal the transformative power of creativity. She illuminates how artistic expression becomes a gateway to maintaining cognitive health, deeper social connections, and renewed purpose.

Key Takeaways

- Increase productivity and problem solving in the workplace
- Discover practical techniques to integrate creativity into daily routines
- Learn how artistic expression combats isolation and builds community
- Understand the science behind creativity's impact on mental health
- Explore ways to find renewed purpose through creative endeavors
- Master strategies for transforming age-related challenges into opportunities for growth

Perfect for:

Business & Industry Meetings - Healthcare Conferences and Symposiums

Wellness and Aging Conferences - Industry Associations

Now the creative force behind the hilarious blog; "Dear Gala Guru", Donna offers dynamic presentations that help organizations tap into their creative potential with flair and real-world wisdom. She is the former host of the adventure TV show "Hittin' the Road" for Rocky Mountain PBS and has a rich background as an international event planner, organizing over 3000 events. Additionally, she has had a successful career as an actress, appearing in over 100 television commercials and over 600 theatrical performances. Donna studied at the prestigious The Second City in Chicago and is the author of the hysterical book "Adventures of a Gala Guru".

Book Donna as your next Keynote Speaker
www.donnavessey.com
719.332.9185

